Why is this week's topic important for teamwork? (20 points)

This week we learned about loyalty. It is important that we are loyal to those groups and organizations that we are a part of. When group members show loyalty toward the group, the feelings of mutual trust are increased.

How do plan on contributing to the team, besides completing your tasks? (20 points)

I plan on contributing to the team this coming week by doing my best to contribute in ways that are meaningful, and that lessen the stress and workload of other group members.

How does your experience relate to other classmates' experiences? (20 points)

Though there were some differences in opinion, it seems that most members of the class share the same sentiments regarding loyalty. We agreed that it is important to remain loyal to a company or group, so far as they treat you with respect and honesty.

Tell me about what you taught someone? And what did they learn, that they didn't know before? (20 points)

My wife and I had a discussion about loyalty. It was interesting to see how our thoughts on what exactly is loyalty were so different. My wife and I have both had jobs in the past where we weren't treated with much respect or consideration. We agreed that it wasn't worth our time to remain in those positions.

If this was a religion class, how would you relate this week's topic to the gospel? (20 points)

Loyalty is a fairly easy topic to relate to the gospel. The Lord expects us to be loyal to him, and we can be, knowing full well that he will always be loyal to us. It is through our loyalty and obedience to the Lord and his commandments that we are able to obtain peace in this life, and eternal life in the next one.
